All Your Needs

At Gardens of Oakley, resident health care encompasses not only clinical needs, but also serves their emotional and social needs as well as spiritual well-being. We're pet-friendly, and have a full staff of physical, occupational and speech therapists available for guests needing short-term rehabilitation. One and Two bedroom assisted living apartments offer residents all the comforts of home with daily housekeeping, chef-prepared meals and the peace of mind knowing any necessary assistance is close at hand with our 24-hour on-site nursing staff. Our dedicated activities department provides daily recreational, spiritual and social activities to ensure every resident lives a healthy and active lifestyle every day.

At Gardens of Oakley, we fulfill all our resident's needs so they can live fulfilling lives.

Rehabilitation & Skilled Services

Gardens of Oakley helps our patients and residents achieve their independence goals while providing the best therapeutic services. We have a full in-house staff of Physical, Occupational and Speech Therapists trained to deliver the best outcomes possible. We also employ an interdisciplinary team of nurses, social workers and dietitians who work with everyone's physicians to develop care plans for each resident and patient.

personal dignity for those with Alzheimer's or other dementias. Finally, Hospice Care focuses on a patient's comfort and ensures their time remaining is quality time surrounded by love and compassion.

All Our Hearts

We believe with all our hearts that everyone under our care deserves to be treated like family. As such, we partner with physicians and family members to develop each health care plan based on each person's unique, specific needs. We provide extensive levels of skilled services, including pain management, enteral feeding, IV antibiotics, wound care and even on-site social worker services. Our operational vision focuses on people, purpose, care and community. As such, our residents and patients deserve and receive the most compassionate professional care we can provide. All Your Needs. All Our Hearts.

Resident Care
